

Student Employment Experience Development (SEED) Program Q&As

Q: Who is eligible to apply for SEED Funding?

A: Eligible employers* are:

- First Nations communities
- Municipalities
- non-profit organizations

* Please be advised that private sector companies and post-secondary institutions are not eligible for the SEED Program.

 Some museums will receive funding for student employment outside of the SEED program and are not eligible for SEED funding. See list of non-eligible museums here.

Q: I am an eligible employer. How do I apply for SEED funding?

A: Eligible employers can apply for SEED funding at www.NBSEED.ca during the application period from January 16 – February 24, 2023. The application button is located at the bottom of the page and says 2023 SEED Employer Application.

Q: I am an employer who applied for SEED funding. When and how do I find out if I have qualified for SEED funding?

A: Beginning on March 13, 2023, the Department of Post-Secondary Education, Training and Labour - WorkingNB will contact employers by email who have been selected to receive a subsidy through the SEED Program. Approved positions will then be posted online at www.NBSEED.ca on the Employer Directory. All successful employers will be notified by March 31, 2023. We thank you in advance for your patience during this process. Students who wish to apply for available positions will be able to do so by consulting the Employer Directory.

Q: I am an employer and have been approved for SEED funding. What are my next steps?

A: Employers are responsible for selecting candidates for their SEED positions. Employers must ensure that the candidates meet the SEED candidate eligibility criteria outlined in their approval email. Approved employer positions will be posted on the Employer Directory at www.NBSEED.ca. Employers are also encouraged to post their positions(s) on www.NBjobs.ca, on job boards or by other methods. Students will be able to apply directly to employers. Employers will select candidates using their own recruitment process.

IMPORTANT: Prior to hiring the student, employers MUST contact the Department of Post-Secondary Education, Training and Labour - WorkingNB central office to set up the contract and receive funding. Employers may contact us at 1-833-971-7333 or by email at NBSEED@gnb.ca.

Q: What is the duration of the SEED placement?

A: A SEED placement can last up to 12 weeks in duration depending on the availability of the student being hired. The SEED placement must take place between April 24th and September 1st, 2023.

Q: Who is eligible to work for an employer with a SEED funded position?

A: A student is eligible to apply for a SEED funded position if they are:

- a resident of New Brunswick (must have lived in New Brunswick for at least 6 months) or a First Nation community in New Brunswick;
- eligible to work in Canada (must have a valid SIN number);
- not an immediate family member (spouse, children, parent, brother or sister) of the employer;
- a full-time student (high school - grade 12 only, university or college) in the current academic year (2022/2023), and
- attending a post-secondary institution full-time in the fall of 2023 (university or college).

Q: I am an eligible student. How do I apply for an employment opportunity with an employer who has a SEED funded position?

A: All SEED funded employment opportunities will be posted in the SEED Employer Directory at www.NBSEED.ca starting on March 13th, 2023. Please apply directly to each employer using the contact information provided in the job postings. Please check the Employer Directory regularly for updates.

Students who are looking for other summer job opportunities:

- are encouraged to explore all summer work options in their region.
- can also apply for summer job opportunities in provincial parks, museums, libraries and visitor information centers.
- can apply for federally funded job opportunities.
- www.NBjobs.ca is also a good resource for job opportunities in New Brunswick.
